Sworn Department (Trunslation)
Deponent; -- OYAMA Ayao

Having first duly sworn an oath as on attached sheet and in accordance with the procedure followed in my country I hereby depose as follows.

- 1. I, OYAMA, Ayao, served as Director of the Bureau of Legal Affairs of the War Winistry from December 1933 to March 1945. My rank at the time of the surrender was Judicial Lieutenant General on the reserve list.
- 2. In regards to the directive which the Vice Vinister issued in compliance with the order he received (Court Exhibit 1992) entitled The Vatter Concerning the Treatment of the Pilots of the Enemy Planes which Carried out Aerial Attacks on Japanese Land No. 2190, dated 28 July 1942, I learned as follows:

DFF. DOC. #2675

That the General Chief of Staff directly requested the Winister of War that something similar to the content of the said directive be issued. Whereupon the War Minister expressed his idea as to what the directive should contain, and the departments and sections concerned consulted arrived at the final draft which after being approved by the Minister of War was issued. The purport of this directive was that the Minister indicated to the Army Commander that those captured among the crews on the raiding planes whose actions did not violate international law were to be treated as ordinary prisoners of war. Those suspected of violating international law were to be subjected to trial by the Counsel of Military Discipline. And if trial proved that the suspects were guilty of a war time major offense, they were to be punished in accordance with the martial law. If the trial found that they were not guilty of any war time major offense or if the trial did not prove that they were guilty of the said offense, they were to be found "not guilty" and acquitted and were to be treated as ordinary prisoners of war; the legal procedure of the special Court Martial as applied to Japanese soldiers in general when put on trial was to be applied.
